1. It has been reported that Nadolny has drawn up a petition to the Allied Control Council in Berlin requesting the formation of a central German government. He is now seeking the signatures of leading German politicians.
2. In a conversation held on 18 July 1947 Georgiev told Nadolny that the latter should hold some important official position with a large number of assistants. Georgiev suggested his appointment as zonal chairman of the Russo-German Institutes now being founded. Plans call for a large Berlin office with many leading personalities participating. Nadolny allegedly replied to this offer that it is out of the question, that he is not a Quisling.
